Brownie Scouts

On Monday, May 23, the Appomattox Brownie Scout Troop 16 held its final meeting of the year at the American Legion auditorium. The committee making plans for this meeting was made up of: Mrs. Grace Taylor, leader; Mrs. John Cole, Mrs. Lula Jamerson, assistant leader, and Mrs. C. S. Booth.
This meeting was for the purpose of a fly-up campaign, at which time the Brownies who are 10 years old "fly-up" into the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop. The mothers of the Brownies, the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop and leaders wre present. A flag ceremony was conducted by the Brownies with everyone participating and the meeting was turned over to Mrs. David Trent, leader of the Girl Scout Troop, who conducted the "fly-up" ceremony. She was assisted by Mrs. S. S. Shouse and Mrs. David Caldwell. The Brownies who "flew-up" and are now Girl Scouts are: Mary Lou Jamerson and Mary Watkins Booth. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Brownies served a picnic supper to all present.

DAIRY TEAMS TO COMPETE IN 4-H SHORT COURSE

Fifteen dairy judging teams, tops in their respective districts, will vie for state honors at the State 4-H Short Course at V. P. I., June 27-July 2.
William N. Patterson, 4-H dairy specialist at V. P. I., says that two members of the winning county team, and two over-all high individuals will be chosen to compete at the Atlantic Rural Exposition in Richmond, September 26, and at the National Dairy Congress, October 3, in Waterloo, Iowa.
A total of 171 4-H dairy club members took part in the recent district contests, Patterson said.

Mr. WILLIAM B. CALDWELL

Mr. William Benjamin Caldwell, 75, died May 19 in the Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg, after an illness of ten days.

Born in Appomattox County on Nov. 10, 1879, he was the son of the late John Randolph and Adelaide McFarland Wood Caldwell. He had been a salesmen for a major shoe manfcaturer for 35 years prior to his retirement some 15 years ago. Following his retirement, he had lived at the Caldwell ancestral home, East Ridge Farm, and participated in many community activities here. He was a member of the Liberty Baptist Church. He had been active in the United Commercial Travelers organization for over 50 years. He was active in the former Appomattox County Fair Association, a lover of baseball and other sports activities, and dearly beloved as a public spirited citizen.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Taylor Caldwell; one son, John Curtis Caldwell, of Appomattox; three sisters, Mrs. W. P. Cooke, Miss Florence Caldwell, and Mrs. A. Judson Bush, of Norfolk; a brother, Charles R. Caldwell, of Sweet Briar; and two grandsons, Jack and Bill Caldwell, of Appomattox.

Funeral services were held Saturday, at 11:00 A. M., from the home, East Ridge Farm, with burial in Liberty Cemetery, Appomattox. Active pallbearers were: Raymond Jamerson, Lyle Godsey, Paul Doss, A. R. Harwood, Jr.; William Burke, Lewis McDearmon, Thelbert Trent, and Wallace Haley.

Widely connected in this section with a host of relatives, and known far and wide for his genial Virginia qualities of charm and personality, the passing of this outstanding gentleman saddened the community. Scores of friends extend deepest sympathy to the family and feel a personal loss in the death.

Saturday is Poppy Day in Appomattox. It is sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary. Wear a Popyy in memory of the war dead.

10-2 Record for Blue Hornets
